

DOUGLAS NEWS NOTES.

Douglas, Ariz., Dec. 20.—(Special.)—City Clerk Samuels returned last evening from Tombstone, where he had been on legal business.

Mrs. E. D. Herr and daughter left this morning for Los Angeles to visit relatives.

St. Williams left last evening for Los Angeles, where he will locate.

E. P. Fleming will leave tomorrow for Boston to visit his mother for several weeks, expecting to be back in Douglas about January 15th.

B. P. Greenwood of Benson came to Douglas yesterday.

F. C. Bach, chief clerk of the National Copper Company of Nacozari, Sonora, is in the city on business for his concern.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Johnson will leave this evening or tomorrow morning for Fort Worth, Tex., where Mr. Johnson has accepted a position. Mr. Johnson has been inspector with the El Paso and Southwestern in Douglas for a year past.

A baby boy was born Sunday to Mrs. Tedd Bress. Tedd says it is the finest boy in town.

E. Titcomb returned to Nogales last evening, after several days in Douglas in connection with the business of the Douglas Gas Company, of which he is the head. C. R. Wickham, the Los Angeles gas man, accompanied him.

Mrs. T. C. Nolan left this morning for the El Tigre mine to join her husband.

Engineer Henry Huddleston and Mrs. Huddleston left yesterday for Florida to spend the winter.

Lon D. Hall, formerly of the Tigre mine, left last night for McCabe, in Yavapai county, where he will make his home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Pittle returned to the city this morning from Bisbee.

T. S. Tercero was in the city yesterday from El Tigre mine. He went to Tombstone.

W. S. Dixon left this morning for San Francisco, where he will spend the holidays.

W. K. Moore was in Bisbee today. J. P. Casey and a party of mining men who came in yesterday—C. E. Conaway of Fairmont, W. Va., and Dr. J. B. Smith of Cleveland, O.—left this morning for points in Sonora to look after their mining interests.

Mrs. French, late of the Queen Hotel, left this morning for Cananea to spend the holidays.

Harry Alexander, general manager of the Cochise Consolidated Copper Company, left for Paradise this morning.

E. A. Torrea came down from Bisbee this forenoon.

H. C. Beumler returned this forenoon from Tombstone, where he has been on legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hanks arrived home from Tombstone today, where Mr. Hanks has been as a witness in a case on trial there.

J. E. Suits came in on this morning's train from Bisbee.

D. Forbes McRae returned home this forenoon from Tombstone, where he was a witness in the law suit for $35,000 against B. F. Graham and others for commission for services alleged to have been rendered in making the deal for the El Tigre.

Attorney Gid Graham arrived home from Tombstone this morning, where he has been on legal business in the district court.

J. N. Kinney spent last night in Bisbee, returning home this forenoon. He expects to leave shortly for Globe, to be gone about a month on business.

United States Marshal Ben Daniels of Tucson passed through town this forenoon on his way home from El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. Talbot of Santa Rosa arrived in town this forenoon. Mr. Talbot has been in the employ of the Rock Island and comes here to a position with the El Paso and Southwestern as freight inspector.

V. R. Rodriguez of Hermosillo is registered at the Roy.

E. C. Sundstrum of Shawnee, Oklahoma, is at the International Hotel.

Mrs. Lusk of Rodeo is in the city.

E. Potts and wife of Benson are in Douglas.

Johnnie Scott is hunting Uncle Jim's goats.

Judge McDonald goes to Tombstone this afternoon as a witness in the McDonald-Jack case, which comes up after the Dodge-Graham case, now on trial.

Frank Watts, a mining man and large cattle dealer of Sonora, Mexico, came in this morning from Nacozari.

William H. Moore, from Mabali, Mexico, is registered at the Roy.

Mr. William Fairall received the above telegram this morning, which probably means that all hope of finding the bodies of Tom Grindell and those who went with him from this city last May to make an exploration of Tiburon Island has passed.

E. P. Grindell, the brother of the leader of the Tiburon expedition, left Hermosillo three weeks ago with a party of Indian guides to make a second attempt to find his brother, who had previously been given up as dead.

The telegram contains all the information of the trip that has reached Douglas.

Douglas people furnished Mr. Grindell and his party with over $500 to meet the expenses of the last searching trip.

On the arrival of Mr. Grindell he will give all the particulars of his trip into the desert country, where his brother and companions perished for want of water.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Trigg and daughter, Marie, left last evening for El Paso, to make that place their home in future.

Assistant Superintendent Rutherford of the Copper Queen smelter returns this evening from El Paso.

W. H. Neil and wife from the 4-Bar ranch are at the Roy.

Gambling License—Sheriff Hunt reports that for the year 1905 he collected gambling licenses amounting to $16,587. This item alone will give some idea of the enormous sums of money that is squandered in Arizona at the gaming tables. This license money from gambling represents many heartaches, unpaid debts, empty cupboards and general deprivation of homes.

For the purpose of equipment and development of its properties at Cananea, the above company is placing an allotment of shares of its capital stock with Bisbee people, the subscription for same being open Friday, Dec. 15, 1905. Similar allotments are also being placed simultaneously at Cananea and points in Michigan and Minnesota.

More than one-half of the allotment reserved for Bisbee has been placed since the issue was open to subscription by us on Friday last, and the way orders are coming in from all directions there will be a great many orders which we will be unable to fill on account of the limited amount of the stock being sold to the public.

Applications for stock can be made and other information regarding organization and property can be had at offices of
